REPORT ON ESSAY-WRITING AND QUIZ COMPETITIONS ORGANISED BY THE ELECTORAL LITERACY CLUB

Government Degree College, Pampore

The Electoral Literacy Club (ELC) of Government Degree College, Pampore, organised essay-writing and quiz competitions on 10 November 2026 under the able guidance of the worthy Principal, Prof. Dr. Gazala Gaiys. The programme was organised with the objective of creating awareness among students about the electoral process and encouraging informed and responsible participation in democracy.

The essay-writing competition was conducted on the themes "Importance of a Pure Electoral Roll" and "Importance of Voting". The topics were selected to highlight the significance of accurate and updated electoral rolls, as well as the responsibility of every eligible citizen to exercise the right to vote. Students expressed their views on the importance of clean electoral records, democratic participation and the role of voting in strengthening democratic institutions.

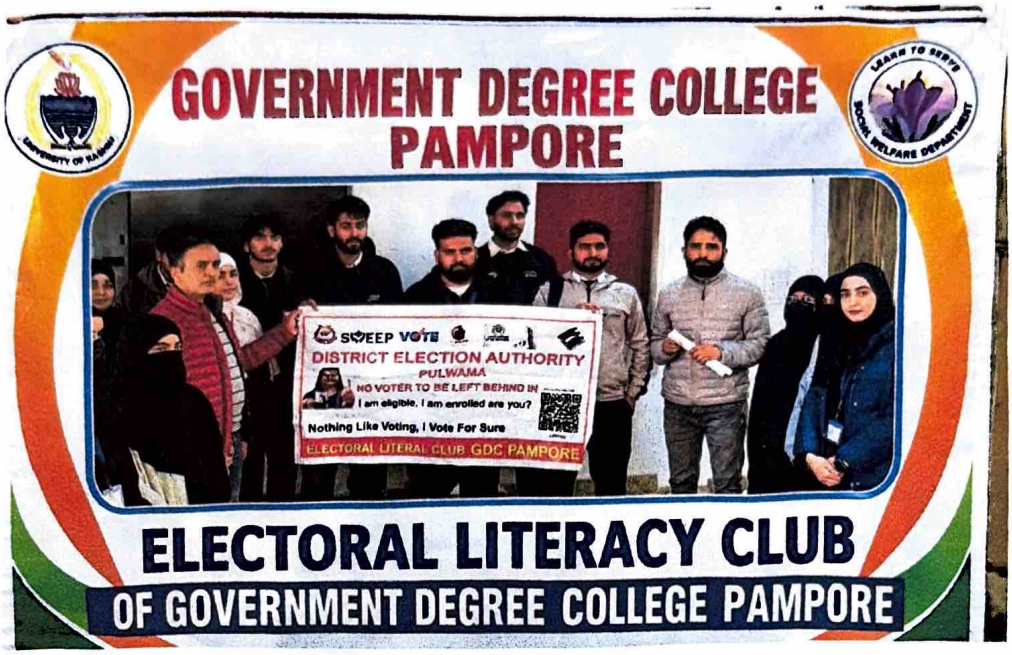

The quiz competition covered important aspects of the electoral process, including the preparation of electoral rolls, the polling process and the counting of votes. The questions were designed to assess and enhance students' knowledge of electoral procedures and democratic practices.

A large number of students participated enthusiastically in both competitions. Before the commencement of the programme, a brief introductory address was delivered by the ELC Coordinator, Ms Arifat Jan, Associate Professor, Department of Political Science. The address highlighted the importance of electoral literacy and encouraged students to take an active interest in democratic processes.

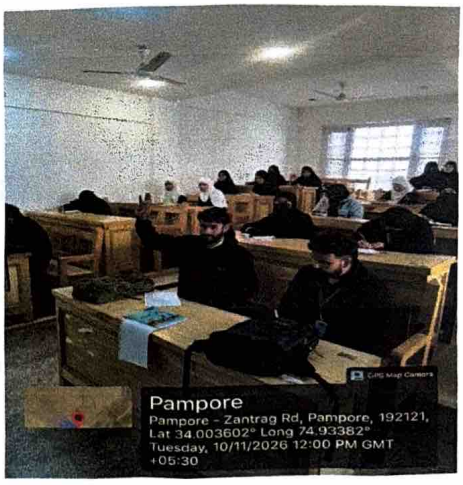

The quiz proceedings were conducted by Dr. Tariq Ahmad of the Department of Political Science. The event was conducted in an engaging and orderly manner, giving students an opportunity to demonstrate their awareness and understanding of electoral matters.

Students participated in both the essay-writing and quiz competitions with great enthusiasm. The programme provided a useful platform for learning, discussion and the exchange of ideas on the importance of voting and the need for accurate electoral rolls.

The programme concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Dr. Imtiyaz Ahmad of the Department of Political Science, who appreciated the efforts of the organisers, the participation of students and the guidance provided by the college administration.

Coordinator, Electoral Literacy Club.

Principal

Principal
Govt. Degree College
Pampore